

ESREA newsletter

Number 2, summer 2017

Dear ESREA member,

This is our second newsletter for 2017. Summer is here and it's time to enjoy the sun, but also to consider what will be happening later in the year. In this newsletter, you will find information on upcoming ESREA Network conferences, summer and autumn school announcements from members and much more.

I would also like to take this opportunity to announce that ESREA will have a new secretary as of this autumn, as Robert Aman will be taking over the role.

Have a wonderful summer!

Sincerely,

Diana Holmqvist

Conferences and seminars

8-11 August 2017

International PhD Summer School: Lifelong Learning and Professional Development, Roskilde University, Denmark.

The Roskilde International Summer School in Lifelong Learning is part of a decade-long tradition of interactive doctoral training. This year's theme explores research in lifelong learning and professional development. The issue of lifelong learning invites projects related to studies of learning and development across different institutional settings, lifeworld's and subjective orientations. Research in professional development is established as a major research field and projects exploring professional development from various angles are welcomed. For more info: <http://events.ruc.dk/phdskole2017>

7-8 September 2017

International conference: Experiencing Higher Education, Transitions and the Graduate Labour Market: The Non-Traditional Student Perspective, University of Seville, Spain.

The conference offers a unique opportunity to engage with scholars from across Europe and more widely: To learn more about a new trans-European study of non-traditional students in diverse higher education institutions, and the perspectives of university staff and employers; to hear and present current research on a vital issues for policy, research and practice; to network with other researchers in higher education in Europe and beyond. For more info, see Appendix 5.

5-10 November 2017

Autumn School: SCoRE' 17 – Science Communication for Researchers in Education, University of Aveiro, Portugal.

The Research Centre on Didactics and Technology in the Education of Trainers from the University of Aveiro, Portugal, is pleased to announce the 1st edition of Autumn School CIDTFF. The main purpose of this programme is to develop the participants' competences in "Science Communication" aiming at different audiences (e.g., politicians, academics, teachers and students and public in general) by (i) using different approaches (e.g., press releases, infographics) and (ii) adopting diverse media channels (e.g., YouTube, Facebook, newspapers). For more info, see Appendix 6.

Conferences and seminars

1-3 February 2018

“Academic Writing” — A weekend for PhD-students and Post-Docs to unfold writing effectively, Villa Ingrid, Weimar, Germany

Since publishing is of such central relevance for academic careers, we dedicate this weekend to produce good output quickly: by doing it together, in a highly activating working atmosphere, through guided writing sessions and workshops. This tough but very rewarding workshop will be facilitated by Ingrid Scherübl and Katja Günther in English, but you can of course write in any language you want.
